Course Description

Develop a diverse and fundamental understanding of chemical engineering principles through invited seminar presentations from experts at UF and other institutions

Course Pre-Requisites / Co-Requisites

None

Course Objectives

Upon completion the student should be able to:

1. Identify a variety of research activities occurring within the field of chemical engineering.
2. Assess the content of presentations and provide critical insight into potential applications and future research directions of the topic.
3. Understand and apply basic laboratory safety rules in their research environment.

Materials and Supply Fees

None

Required Textbooks and Software

None

Recommended Materials

None

Course Schedule

The course consists of invited seminars held on Tuesdays during Period 3 (9:00-10:10 am). The topics of the presentations represent the diversity of chemical engineering research topics and vary week-to-week and semester-to-semester. Other chemical engineering seminars may be announced during the semester, often for interviewing potential faculty hires. It is critical to the success of our department that all seminars are well attended.

Students will receive seminar announcements from department staff reminding them of upcoming seminars. It is expected that all students check their UF email account regularly to stay up to date on upcoming seminars.

Attendance Policy, Class Expectations, and Make-Up Policy

Seminars from invited speakers will be in person. There may be speakers who will give their seminars virtually over zoom. Attendance is highly required and is taken before each seminar begins and after the seminar ends. Students must arrive 5-10 min prior to the seminar start to sign up attendance sheets (in HPNP 1404).

Students are allowed as many as two absences from seminar for any reason. Students anticipating absences due to religious observances must inform the instructor (Prof. Joshua Moon), consistent with UF Policy. Additional excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/graduate/regulations>) and require appropriate documentation. Additional information can be found here: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/>

If students miss seminar due to their attendance at conferences or workshops, verified through notice from the student's advisor, their absence will not count towards the two allowed absences.

Students with more than the allowed excused absences from seminar must attend a Make-Up seminar, which may be a chemical engineering seminar held outside of regular class meeting times (e.g., research seminars held on days besides Monday) or a seminar where the topic is related to chemical engineering. These seminars can be held in another department within the College of Engineering or in the Departments of Chemistry or Physics. Attending seminars from other departments may be acceptable but they must be pre-approved by the instructor.

Attendance at any Make-Up seminar must be documented using the Make-Up Seminar Form (available in the graduate office, contact Ms. Shirley Kelly) and 1 page summary of the seminar contents.

Evaluation of Grades & Grading Policy

Course grades will be assigned based solely on the attendance to seminars. Students will drop one letter grade for each unexcused absence from seminar. Additional excused absences beyond the two allowed absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/graduate/regulations>) and require appropriate documentation. Additional information can be found here: <https://gradcatalog.ufl.edu/graduate/regulations/>

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

In-Class Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A "class lecture" is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (<https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Commitment to a Safe and Inclusive Learning Environment

The Herbert Wertheim College of Engineering values varied perspectives and lived experiences within our community and is committed to supporting the University’s core values, including the elimination of discrimination. It is expected that every person in this class will treat one another with dignity and respect regardless of race, creed, color, religion, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, marital status, national origin, political opinions or affiliations, genetic information, and veteran status.

If you feel like your performance in class is being impacted by discrimination or harassment of any kind, please contact your instructor or any of the following:

- Your academic advisor or Graduate Program Coordinator
- HWCOE Human Resources, 352-392-0904, student-support-hr@eng.ufl.edu
- Curtis Taylor, Associate Dean of Student Affairs, 352-392-2177, taylor@eng.ufl.edu
- Toshikazu Nishida, Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, 352-392-0943, nishida@eng.ufl.edu

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Student Privacy

There are federal laws protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments. For more information, please see: <https://registrar.ufl.edu/ferpa.html>

Campus Resources
Health and Wellness

U Matter, We Care:

Your well-being is important to the University of Florida. The U Matter, We Care initiative is committed to creating a culture of care on our campus by encouraging members of our community to look out for one another and to reach out for help if a member of our community is in need. If you or a friend is in distress, please contact umatter@ufl.edu so that the U Matter, We Care Team can reach out to the student in distress. A nighttime and weekend crisis counselor is available by phone at 352-392-1575. The U Matter, We Care Team can help connect students to the many other helping resources available including, but not limited to, Victim Advocates, Housing staff, and the Counseling and Wellness Center. Please remember that asking for help is a sign of strength. In case of emergency, call 9-1-1.
